It is claimed by the scientists of the far north that a large supply of grasshoppers are preparing to start eastward, and Minnesota, Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa farmers are warned to look out for them. If the bug scientists are not altogether mistaken it is to be hoped that they are correct in leaving Kansas out of the list.

It is reported that T. P. Kingrey and A. W. Smith, formerly of Dodge City, have bought a hotel at Excelsior Springs, Missouri. The Lithia springs it is said are in this hotel building and a bath house for patients will be put in the hotel. A. P. Coons, formerly of this place is also at Excelsior Springs in the hotel business.

The claim made by A. J. Anthony for losses by Indian raids in the early days in Ford county, and which was allowed some time ago, has been paid by the government. Every body should get busy helping to make the reunion a great big success. Friday, August 31st will be Fairbank's day, and the big parade. There will be a company of Indiana Volunteers in line as a special escort of the Vice President, scores of old soldiers, hundred of school children, and the whole town and county should fall in line.

P. Kingrey and A. W. Smith were in Dodge City on Tuesday. They say the report that they have bought the Lithia Springs at Excelsior, Mo., is correct. The hotel in which the spring is located will be changed into a bath house. The spring is one of the most valuable in the town and the new proprietors will fit up a fine place and think they have a big thing in the enterprise.

The picnic given at the park on Monday evening by a number of young people was enjoyed very much by those present. After the box supper, the picnic party amused themselves in the grand stand. Several of the guests proved very entertaining, while much talent was shown by the quartet in the singing of several songs.

There has been little change in the condition of Mrs. Maude Averill during the past week. She is still lying as though in slumber with little signs of life. A consultation of Drs. McCarty, Graves and Dr. Kaster and Dr. Maguire of Topeka, was held Tuesday morning and it seems to be the opinion that Mrs. Averill will revive again, but there appears to be very little certainty regarding the ultimate outcome of the case. Mrs. Averill has been in her present condition since Wednesday evening, July 18, over two weeks.

A very enjoyable evening party was given by a number of young ladies in honor of Miss Letha Hurst of Garden City, at the home of Miss Mabelle Constable on last Friday evening. The Russian thistle is making trouble in Hedgeham county. The Jetmore Republican says: "The county commissioners at their regular meeting voted to serve notice upon all property owners to destroy all Russian or Canada thistles which may be growing upon their places. The law provides that the commissioners shall designate a time when all such weeds shall be destroyed and shall give notice thereof by publishing such notice in a paper published in the county for a period of three weeks. Notices will be served on all property owners by the road overseers in each district and the law provides that if any property owner fails to destroy the thistles within the given time that they shall be destroyed by the road overseer and the expense of so doing shall be charged up as taxes against the land."

The A. B. girls arrived in Dublin, Ireland, at 4:00 p. m. on the 28th where they were taken possession of by Miss DeEtte Reighard who was to be their hostess. Much forethought was shown by Miss DeEtte in the delightful luncheon given the girls, everyone expressing their willingness to visit Ireland again. The color of green predominated from the dainty shamrock napkins to the ice cream. The excellent potatoes of the county also deserve mention. The guests were Mesdames Phillips and Pixley and the Misses Lulu Sturm, Nora Carson and Letha Hurst of Garden City. The girls will not stay long in Dublin as their next trip will be to Madrid, Spain and the surrounding countries. Miss Grace Gwinn will entertain the girls in Madrid on the 11th of August.

The Osborne Farmer gives this advice: "My elderly woman friend, don't you think you are talking altogether too much about the affairs of your neighbors? I notice that nothing comes up in which you do not take out a stack of chips. Don't you know that all the people in town are onto you? You are fast getting a name as a professional gossip. The affairs of your neighbors need not concern you very much. You have had troubles of your own. You know that I could go back a few years and relate a story that would rest very sweetly under the tongues of the new generation of scandal mongers in the old town, don't you? But then I will not do it. I think you have shot off prematurely. When you wrap your own garment around you, you will find so many rents that you will be glad to keep still about your neighbor's. You have more than you can do to manage your own shady deals. Your time will all be taken up if you attend strictly to business and keep your defects from the eyes of the world. Keep on talking, and in a few months nobody will believe anything you say, and you will become a byword with the neighbors. There is nothing so much despised in any town as the professional gossip. Don't become one."
